Knowledge Is A Step Which Few May Climb.
Which All May Tread.

The 1961-62 school year is ended. At present you can vividly recall the trials and tribulations of the past nine months. As your fruitful life unfolds, these memories will fade into the background. The education gained will remain with you forever. We hope you will use this LINER to refresh your many fond memories of PLHS. Without your participation in the activities and studies offered a P.L.H.S., we, the members of the LINERS staff, could not present this yearbook to you. This we do proudly and in thanks for your support.

Dear Seniors:

We have seen many changes in our school in the six years of your stay with us.

You were very cooperative and patient in these changes. I hope that you carry these characteristics with you throughout life, and I believe you will. Six years of patience and understanding will enable you to meet other circumstances of similar nature in the future.

It is with regret that I see you leave, but with a sincere hope that the training you have received here may help you to meet your future problems with more confidence and understanding.

Lynn K. Smith

Supervising Principal

Congratulations Seniors:

"This commencement marks the end the beginning-the end of our immature, childhood ways and the beginning of an adult life with mature and wise outlooks on the world and its society"

In fact one of your very first problems will be that of continuing your education or searching for a job. This will be entirely different and new to you because you will be on your own for the first time since the day you were born.

The faculty and I have watched you for the last six years, as you grew physically, mentally, socially, and spiritually. We are proud of you and are happy that you have met the requirements for graduation.

It is our hope that you will be able to use the knowledge gained while in Purchase Line High School to enable you to solve the newly acquired problems and walk the pathway to success.

I wish you good luck, good health and may God Bless you.

Senior Introduction

We the class of '62, experience a feeling of mixed emotions as we leave Purchase Line High School. Our memories recall with sentiment the guiding hand of our class sponsors, and the joys and sorrows we all shared in "The Enchanted Garden." Then, looking to the future with confidence, we see promises of success and happiness for those who continue to strive. P.L.H.S. will live for years to come in the hearts of every senior, just as every seniors' footsteps will echo in the halls of P.L.H.S.

Dedication

It is with a deep sense of gratitude and thanks that we dedicate this book to a member of our faculty. This is our way of saying 'thank you' for all the things you have done for us in the past, and the things we know you will do to help future students of our school.

It is with this thought in mind that we, the Senior Class members of the 1962 Liner Staff, take pride in dedicating this book to our teacher, sponsor, coach, and friend--Mr. 'Bert' Woodson.

"Without labor, nothing prospers." Keeping this famous quotation in mind, we the members of the 1962 Liner Staff toiled to produce our best, your yearbook.

We began in September by choosing the different staffs. After the members were carefully separated into these working staff, our labors began. The days finally arrived for Mr. Tomb of Cover Studios to take photographs. The staff members diligently assisted him and hit many 'snags.' During this time also the senior write-ups and other writing assignments were distributed.

When the books arrived for distribution, we could not help feeling proud as we turned the pages, which we ourselves had organized. We hope the book will be thought of equally well by you.
